Information: This program is for Baldwin School District residents only. Students must be registered by a parent or legal guardian to participate in the after-school Homework Center. This is a one-time registration for the 2011-2012 school year, beginning September 6, 2011. A certified teacher is available to assist students with their homework. Please review the Homework Center rules with your teens. By working together, we can provide a good learning environment for our teens.

Homework Center Hours: The Homework Center begins Monday, September 26, 2011. Hours will be: Mondays – Thursdays, 4:00 – 5:30PM (school days only).
 If the Baldwin School District has no school, the Homework Center will also be closed.

Homework Center Rules:

- All students must sign in for every visit. Once a student leaves the Homework Center, he/she must sign out.
- All students must do homework or school-related work in the Homework Center.
- Homework Help is for grades 7-12 (no younger siblings please).
- Computers are for homework assignments and school projects only.
- Please be quiet and considerate of all students.
- Only water is permitted, but must be placed on the floor - not next to the keyboards.

Please note: Disruptive students will be asked to leave the Homework Center. If a teen remains a disturbance in the Library, he or she will be asked to leave the building.

In registering my teen for the Homework Center, I verify that I am aware of the Homework Center hours and rules and will review the Homework Center rules with my child.
